We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Project Manager – IT Specialist (FGIV)

in DG Translation of the European Commission

Job title: IT Security Officer

Domain: Information Technology

Where: Unit DGT.T.1 (IT services), Luxembourg

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 04.08.2026 – 12.00 noon (Luxembourg time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Translation (DGT) is the European Commission's language service, the largest public translation service globally, playing a vital role in the EU's multilingualism policy. We help bring the Union's policies closer to its citizens. Our Technology Directorate (DIR.T) fosters a cutting-edge IT environment and spearheads innovation, including in AI, to keep DGT at the forefront of digital transformation.

Unit T.1, within DIR.T, is crucial in supporting all users, enabling DGT to deliver high-quality translations and language services. We develop and maintain information systems for DGT's enterprise architecture and business processes and manage software acquisition. Our unit actively implements the Commission's Digital and Data Strategies. Based in Brussels with team members also in Luxembourg, Unit T.1 values a supportive and collaborative atmosphere where the human aspect is central to our success. You will be joining a team led by a Head of Unit, supported by three Heads of Sector.

WE ARE

We are offering a dynamic position as a Project Manager - IT Specialist. In this role, you will organise, manage, and supervise the implementation of key IT services and projects. You will lead a team of IT developers, including external service providers, and coordinate their daily tasks.

Your main responsibilities will include applying the PM² methodology to create project plans, manage risks, and ensure the timely delivery of software solutions. You will also collaborate closely with other Commission services, such as DIGIT, to handle technical maintenance, system migrations, and support end-users through business transformations.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a motivated IT Project Manager with a strong background in Information and Communication Technologies. You should have at least 5 years of relevant professional experience in managing IT tools and software development projects, as well as proven software development experience, ideally in the field of financial applications.

The ideal candidate will have a solid understanding of modern software architecture and infrastructure. To successfully guide our development teams, following practical experience and/or strong working knowledge in the following areas will be considered as strong assets:

- Java and Node.js
- Kafka
- Cloud computing
- DevSecOps practices
- ColdFusion migration (to lead the decommissioning of our legacy products)

You should possess excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, with the ability to conceptualise technical solutions and structure information effectively. Strong leadership and teamwork skills are essential, as you will be managing developer teams and coordinating with multiple stakeholders.

A thorough knowledge of English (C1 level) is required to communicate technical information clearly and draft project documentation. An intermediate working knowledge of French is also necessary. Familiarity with the PM² project management methodology is highly desirable.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

With a view to guaranteeing equal access to all, the Commission recruits from an open database of spontaneous applications. The present call for interests aims at helping the recruiters to identify potentially interested candidates within this database.

In practice, to express your interest, please follow the subsequent two steps:

1. If you are not registered yet in the open EPSO database, please do so at the following address: CAST Permanent. Please select under selection procedures for contract agent the CAST permanent profile that best suits your education and experience.
2. You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:
 1. your CV
 2. completed application form.Please send these documents by the publication deadline to DGT-T-1-SECRETARIAT@ec.europa.eu indicating the call for interest reference EC/2026/DGT/515278 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
