

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Express your interest until: 28.08.2026 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA) is responsible for formulating the EU’s international partnership and development policy, with the ultimate goal to reduce poverty, ensure sustainable development, and promote democracy, human rights, and the rule of law across the world. Through the Global Gateway Strategy, the EU, its Member States, and European Development Finance Institutions support sustainable investments and development in partner countries.

Unit INTPA.G4 “Social Inclusion and Protection, Health and Demography” is within the DG for International Partnerships the center of expertise for external cooperation regarding health, social protection, social inclusion, disabilities, social and economic inequalities and demography. It formulates external policies in all these areas, provides expertise and liaises with key international agencies. The unit is divided in three sections: health, investments in health and social protection and inequalities.

WE PROPOSE

Unit G4 of DG INTPA is seeking to hire an Administrative Agent. The successful candidate will join a friendly, dynamic and collaborative unit and will play an important role in supporting its daily operations.

The successful candidate will provide administrative, logistical and secretarial support to the unit, including assistance with the preparation and follow-up of meetings and events. They will also contribute to the follow-up of HR and financial matters and support knowledge management within the unit. The successful candidate will be expected to manage tasks with flexibility and autonomy, while ensuring alignment with the priorities and instructions of the Head of Unit.

The selected candidate will contribute to maintaining an efficient flow of information and clear communication within the unit, with other Commission services and with external stakeholders. The successful candidate will work in close cooperation with the unit's Secretary and provide cross-cutting support to the unit's three teams, helping to ensure the smooth day-to-day functioning of the unit.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a highly organised, motivated, reliable and proactive colleague to support the Unit Secretariat and contribute to the organisation of meetings, events and related coordination activities.

The successful candidate should have sound organisational skills be flexible, and be able to prioritise tasks effectively while managing a demanding workload. They should also be capable of handling sensitive information with discretion. Written and spoken fluency in English, together with a good command of French, are required.

The ideal candidate should also demonstrate a strong sense of initiative, excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and a constructive attitude. Flexibility, team spirit, and the ability to provide reliable backup support to colleagues are also essential. Motivation and the capacity to contribute to improvements in the working environment and internal working methods would be particularly appreciated.

Knowledge of corporate IT tools such as ARES (document management), BASIS (briefing tool), MIPS (mission management) and DECIDE (decision-making tool), or of equivalent systems, would be an advantage. Good knowledge of Sharepoint is also an asset.
