

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

The Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME) develops and manages key policies to ensure an open and secure Europe, where people can enjoy their rights and freedoms with a high level of security. The Unit HOME.D.4 “Security in the Digital Age” within DG HOME has a leading role in the development and implementation of EU policy and legislation to enhance the prevention, detection, investigation and prosecution of all forms of cyber-crime, including online fraud, non-cash payment fraud, attacks against information systems and all forms of child sexual abuse and exploitation, online and offline. The Unit is in charge of the policy linked to the law enforcement needs in the area of access to e-evidence for criminal investigation purposes, including cross-border access, access to encrypted data, retention of data by providers, and their external dimension. The Unit also is responsible for the EU Internet Forum which provides a collaborative platform for EU governments, service providers, and other partners to address the challenges posed by malicious and illegal content online and which explores responses against the abuse and exploitation of online platforms by terrorists and violent extremists, as well as other malicious actors including those that groom children for the purpose of sexual abuse.

We offer an interesting and challenging post of policy assistant in the Fight against Child Sexual Abuse Sector to support the policy initiatives of the sector, including inter alia the Prevention Network against Child Sexual Abuse as well as multistakeholder engagement and collaboration.

WE PROPOSE

The Fight against Child Sexual Abuse Sector in HOME.D4 Unit “Security in the Digital Age” is seeking to hire a policy assistant. The position will consist of assisting the policy work of the sector by preparing and/or contributing to various policy documents and relevant procedures, assisting the organisation and coordination of the prevention network activities and meetings, relations with its members. The position further consists of cooperation with different services within the Commission, drafting Terms of Service for external contractors, as well as managing relations with them.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic, highly motivated reliable and stress resilient colleague with a developed sense of initiative, a meticulous and process-oriented work approach and outstanding organisational skills. He/she should have service-mind, capacity to work efficiently and flexibly in a team cooperation spirit and good communication skills to target messages to different audiences and levels of seniority.

The ideal profile for the job is a candidate with experience in policy development (policy research and policy drafting), procedural follow-up, communication and collaboration with internal and external stakeholders. He/she should have experience in providing administrative support, document management, including handling access to document requests in accordance with the EU rules. Experience in event management and knowledge of procurement/contract management would be considered an asset.

The selected candidate should have an excellent oral and written command of English and French.

At least 3 years of professional experience executing tasks similar to the above-mentioned ones, including relevant experience as policy assistant is required.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to HOME-D4-RECRUITMENTS@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference HOME/COM/2026/1313 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
