

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Policy Officer

Directorate-General Taxation and Customs Union (DG TAXUD) of the European Commission

Selection reference: TAXUD/COM/2026/894

Domain*: Taxation

Where: Directorate for Indirect Taxation and Tax Administration (TAXUD.C), Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b– Administrator

Grade range: AD5-AD7

Publication deadline: 12.08.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The Directorate General Customs and Taxation (DG TAXUD) mission is to promote fair and sustainable policies that generate revenue for the EU and its Member States and ensure that EU citizens and businesses benefit from global trade and a safe and secure Single Market protected at its borders.

The Directorate for Indirect Taxation and Tax Administration (TAXUD.C) is a friendly and dynamic directorate. Within DG TAX-UD, Directorate C is developing an overall policy in the area of indirect taxation, including financial sector taxation as well as environmental, transport and energy taxation, VAT, excise duties and tax administration.

It is also responsible for developing and implementing the Carbon border adjustment mechanism and tax initiatives included in the European Green Deal. The Directorate includes 85 staff with a good mix of officials, temporary and contract agents and national experts.

Within DG TAXUD, Directorate C is developing an overall policy in the area of indirect taxation, including financial sector taxation as well as environmental, transport and energy taxation, VAT, excise duties and tax administration. It is also responsible for developing and implementing the Carbon border adjustment mechanism and tax initiatives included in the European Green Deal. The Directorate includes 85 staff with a good mix of officials, temporary and contract agents and national experts.

WE PROPOSE

The job consists of contributing to the development, coordination and implementation of EU tax policy, with a particular focus on the Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism, environmental taxation, excise duties and other areas of indirect taxation.

The job involves providing technical, legal and economic analysis, preparing policy papers, briefings, speeches and other working documents, and contributing to legislative proposals, implementing measures, impact assessments and evaluations. The jobholder will be expected to contribute directly to the drafting, coordination and follow-up of CBAM-related legislative and policy files, including the preparation of documents for internal decision-making and interinstitutional discussions.

The jobholder will also contribute to interservice consultations, follow discussions in the Council, the European Parliament and other institutional fora, represent the Commission in meetings with Member States and stakeholders, and support the follow-up of legislative proposals throughout the interinstitutional decision-making process. The job requires close coordination across the Directorate, with other Directorates-General and with external stakeholders, as well as direct involvement in the preparation and follow-up of high-level meetings and sensitive policy discussions.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic and highly dependable colleague with substantial experience in EU tax policy, in particular in the field of the Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism. The ideal candidate should have proven experience in drafting CBAM-related legislative, implementing and policy documents, and in preparing high-quality briefings, speeches and notes for senior management. Experience in coordinating sensitive files with Directors and in preparing and supporting high-level meetings is essential.

The candidate should also have a strong understanding of EU decision-making procedures, including interservice consultations and interinstitutional negotiations, and demonstrated experience in coordinating input from multiple actors under tight deadlines. Strong analytical, drafting and coordination skills, sound judgment, discretion, autonomy and the ability to work effectively in a politically sensitive environment are required. A very good command of English is required.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to TAXUD-C@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference TAXUD/COM/2026/894 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
