

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Where: Unit COMM.B.1 – “Campaigns”, Brussels

Function Group: FG III

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 28.08.2026 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG COMM's mission is to bring Europe closer to its citizens by listening, understanding, and communicating with them. Within DG COMM, Unit B.1 is responsible for Campaigns, which involves translating the Commission's political priorities into impactful communication outreach.

The successful candidate would join our team which develops and manages large-scale communication campaigns that reflect and promote the Commission's political agenda. We are also in charge of financial and contractual management throughout the campaign, ensuring compliance with transparency, privacy, and intellectual property rights.

WE PROPOSE

As an Information and Communication Assistant – Campaign Manager, you will be part of DG COMM.B1, a group of communication professionals working collaboratively to deliver impactful campaigns. You will report directly to the Head of Unit and the Deputy Head of Unit and work closely with team members specialising in strategy, project management, creative asset development, content production, monitoring and evaluation, legal advice, and financial assistance.

Your role will involve:

- Supporting the planning, implementation, and monitoring of multi-channel and multi-country communication campaigns. Assist in the day-to-day management of communication actions.
- Contribute to the analysis, assessment and steering of campaigns by other Commission services and Representations
- Contributing to the preparation, evaluation, and administrative management of procurement procedures.
- Collaborating with external contractors, such as media and communication agencies, as well as research and evaluation partners.

(Reference: Call for interest EC-2026-COMM-444542)

- Supporting the campaign team in logistics, coordination, and briefings related to events and visibility actions.
- Ensuring administrative follow-up and document handling in compliance with internal procedures.

WE LOOK FOR

We seek a motivated, versatile, and collaborative colleague who enjoys taking on new challenges. The ideal candidate should have:

- At least 5 years of experience in the execution, delivery and evaluation of multi-channel, multi-country communication campaigns.
- Proven project management skills: You should be hands-on and able to manage projects while working effectively within a team.
- Knowledge of financial and administrative procedures, including financial management and document management, would be an advantage.
- Strong teamwork skills: The ability to work collaboratively in a campaign team, listen to diverse perspectives, contribute to group efforts, and maintain a strong sense of responsibility.
