

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Legal and policy officer

in DG EAC of the European Commission

Job title: Legal and Policy Officer

Domain: European Policy and Law

Where: Unit EAC.C2 – „Choose Europe and MSCA“, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 31.08.2026 – 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

We are the team behind Choose Europe and the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA), working to make Europe a place where research talent can thrive. We support researchers' training and career development at every stage of their journey, and help connect people, ideas and opportunities across borders. By promoting excellent working conditions, strong careers and global openness, we help make Europe an attractive destination for talent from around the world.

WE PROPOSE

We offer a stimulating policy and legal officer role at the heart of Horizon Europe, where you will help shape and advance the political and regulatory framework of the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) —the European Union's flagship instrument for researcher training and career development.

We propose a post at the centre of the legal, regulatory and policy framework underpinning the MSCA under Horizon Europe. The successful candidate will contribute to the development, interpretation and implementation of the legal and contractual rules governing the programme, ensuring that policy objectives are translated into clear, robust and operationally sound provisions.

The post offers the opportunity to work on the drafting and revision of policy and legal documents, including regulatory and implementing texts, guidance material, model grant agreement provisions and internal procedures. The role also involves supporting the preparation of legal and policy positions on issues related to programme implementation, with particular attention to coherence, legal certainty and compliance with the applicable financial and regulatory framework.

The successful candidate will contribute to the coordination of complex files with key Commission services, notably the Research Executive Agency, the Horizon Europe Common Legal Support Service, the Legal Service and DG BUDG, and will help ensure that proposals and implementing approaches are legally sound, financially compliant and aligned with the broader framework of Horizon Europe. The post requires a strong capacity to analyse legal and regulatory questions, assess their operational implications and support the preparation of clear solutions for internal and external stakeholders.

The role will also require cooperation with stakeholders and national bodies from Europe and beyond.

Overall, we propose a challenging and rewarding position for a colleague with a strong interest in legal and regulatory matters, policy drafting and programme implementation, who wishes to contribute to the sound and compliant delivery of one of the European Union's flagship research and innovation programmes.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic, committed colleague with proven experience and solid background and knowledge in legal advice and financial management. The successful candidate should have a good understanding of EU programmes, in particular the Horizon Europe and the MSCA . Practical knowledge of the legal and financial requirements governing the implementation of a Horizon Europe Work Programme part would be a strong asset. We need a team player with a collegial and proactive attitude who can also work autonomously. We would expect you to help analyse complex files from a legal, and financial point of view and to give sound advice on these matters. Excellent knowledge of English is required.

Personal qualities

- Strong organisational planning and coordination skills, accuracy and attention to detail;
- Discretion and ability to handle confidential information;
- Analytical and problem-solving skills;
- Good interpersonal skills;
- Service-oriented attitude;
- Initiative, resilience and ability to meet deadlines;
- Flexibility and willingness to learn
