

MAKE A DIFFERENCE - JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

INTERNAL CONTROL OFFICER

ANTI-FRAUD OFFICER

Directorate-General for European Civil Protection and Humanitarian Aid Operations (DG ECHO) of the European Commission

Selection reference: ECHO/COM/2026/1672

Domain: CIVIL PROTECTION, EMERGENCY RESPONSE & HUMANITARIAN AID

Where: Unit E.2 – “Programming, Control & Reporting”, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b

Grade range: AD5-A7

Publication deadline: 21.08.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

ECHO E2 manages the horizontal processes related to the preparation and implementation of the budget, strategic planning, budgetary reporting, internal control, compliance and assurance processes, risk management, anti-fraud strategy, prevention of sexual exploitation, abuse and harassment, DG ECHO external audits and their follow-up, as well as the discharge in cooperation with operational units and central services (SG, BUDG, IAS, OLAF). The unit is in the lead for relations with European Court of Auditors, and the budget authority (European Parliament – COBU, CONT – or Council Committees). The unit is also responsible for the coordination of the ABM/SPP cycle (AMP, AAR, etc.), the annual humanitarian aid report, the World Wide Decision (WWD) and the operational priorities (GGOPHA). In addition, it is in charge of strengthening DG ECHO's overall evidence-based capacity. This includes methodologies for humanitarian needs assessment and funding allocations. The unit develops methodologies to measure the impact and cost-effectiveness of humanitarian aid and civil protection operations.

WE PROPOSE

We propose a very interesting and challenging position of Anti-Fraud officer within a highly motivated, experienced team in charge of the compliance issues. The successful candidate will contribute to the implementation of the DG ECHO Anti-Fraud Strategy. The candidate will ensure a preliminary assessment of fraud allegations, collect relevant data and ensure follow-up with relevant stakeholders, including the European Commission Anti-fraud Office (OLAF). Provide internal and external communication on fraud related matters, including with the European Council and Parliament. Assist the operational units with internal control and anti-fraud expertise through the development of guidelines and awareness raising materials and the provision of awareness training sessions. Contribute to ensuring that the required management and control systems are set up and functioning properly for the implementation of DG ECHO activities (humanitarian aid, civil protection, etc.). Participate in working groups with external and internal partners and stakeholders. Contribute to horizontal tasks such as planning and reporting, and the definition of DG ECHO Anti-fraud strategy.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a committed and enthusiastic colleague with a constructive team spirit, who will contribute with the relevant expertise to the work of the unit. The candidate should have a strong background and solid experience and expertise of at least three years in Anti-fraud, Internal Control, Risk analysis and Civil Protection, Emergency Response and Humanitarian Aid including knowledge of anti-fraud approaches implemented by International Organisations, including UN and the Red Cross family and International NGOs operating in the field of Humanitarian aid. Substantive knowledge in the areas of anti-fraud measures, Internal Control, Civil Protection and Humanitarian Aid, and Financial Management is required. The ideal candidate is a colleague with strong interpersonal skills, who is able to coordinate effectively amongst internal and external stakeholders. We look for a colleague with a good sense of analysis, responsibility, initiative, and able to work autonomously, delivering results within set deadlines; resilience and capacity of working under time pressure is expected, strict respect of ethics and confidentiality is a clear prerequisite. Excellent command of written and spoken English is essential; good knowledge of French is considered an asset and any other Member States' languages would be an advantage.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least 3 years attested by a diploma.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

² The official languages of the European Union are: BG (Bulgarian), CS (Czech), DA (Danish), DE (German), EL (Greek), EN (English), ES (Spanish), ET (Estonian), FI (Finnish), FR (French), GA (Irish), HR (Croatian), HU (Hungarian), IT (Italian), LT (Lithuanian), LV (Latvian), MT (Maltese), NL (Dutch), PL (Polish), PT (Portuguese), RO (Romanian), SK (Slovak), SL (Slovenian), SV (Swedish).

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b)/2(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AD.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)9049 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be that of a new published competition or already planned in the field. If there is none, recruitment will be at the level of AD5. The Authority authorised to conclude Contracts of Employment ('AACE') may grant a grade AD6 or AD7 based on an assessment of the needs of the service, including without limitation the nature of the profile sought, the level of responsibility to be exercised or the labour market conditions for the profile in question, and on the duration of the candidates' previous appropriate professional experience. The maximum recruitment grade is AD8, which may be granted under very exceptional circumstances.

The duration of the 1st contract will be of 1 to 3 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service. The duration of the extension will be defined according to the General Implementation Rules in force at that moment, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2013\)9049 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
