

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE PROPOSE

Unit D.2 of DG MOVE is seeking to hire a secretary to complete the team.

The position will consist of providing administrative support and secretarial assistance to the colleagues in the unit. The successful candidate will be responsible for agenda and document management, handling correspondence, managing mailing lists and functional mailboxes, and coordinating contributions to briefings, speeches and other requests.

Additionally, the role encompasses logistical support for meetings, expert groups, and conferences, including room reservations, ordering supplies, and document preparation.

The secretary will also act as an information point, welcoming visitors and ensuring the smooth flow of communication within the unit.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a dynamic, results-oriented, and proactive colleague contributing to a positive and collaborative working environment. The candidate should be able to work both independently and as part of a team, effectively prioritising and coordinating tasks and supporting colleagues.

The ideal profile for the job is someone with at least two years of relevant experience in operational and administrative support. The candidate should be well-versed in administrative procedures at the European Commission, with the ability to manage records, documents and mail handling effectively. The candidate should have proficiency in the most relevant EC IT tools (e.g. ARES, BASIS, Decide, MIPS, AGM etc.).

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to MOVE-MARITIME-TRANSPORT-AND-SAFETY@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference MOVE/COM/2026/1762 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
