

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

For more information ec.europa.eu/work-with-us

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

For more information on different staff categories

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Secretary to the Director

Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CNECT) of the European Commission

Selection reference: CNECT/COM/2026/1794

Domain*: Cybersecurity

Where: Directorate H – “Cybersecurity and Trust”, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b/d - Administrative agent

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 04.09.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG CNECT supports the digital transformation of our economy and society, conceives and implements the policies required to foster the internal market, make Europe fit for the Digital age and technological sovereignty. The DG actively promotes cross-cutting collaboration within the DG and across the Commission. The implementation of the DG's activities is based on a two - way cooperation with all interested parties (business, academia, public organisations, stakeholders, citizens). The DG's policy on middle managers respects diversity, supports career development and encourages mobility. Middle managers are called upon to be multi-skilled, open-minded and collaborative.

Directorate H – “Cybersecurity and Trust” – operates at the intersection of security and technology with a mission to strengthen the security, resilience and trustworthiness of Europe’s digital society and economy. The Directorate designs, proposes and implements policies and laws that protect citizens, companies and critical services and create opportunities for European businesses. Our work covers the EU cybersecurity regulatory and policy framework, preparedness and crisis coordination, cybersecurity technology and capacity-building and digital identity and trust services. We work on emerging security challenges including drone and counter-drone security, the protection and resilience of submarine cables as well as the security implications and opportunities of artificial intelligence. To achieve its objectives, the Directorate draws on the full range of EU policy instruments, including legislation, investment in research and innovation, the deployment of digital and cybersecurity capabilities, international cooperation, and the coordination and mobilisation of public and private stakeholders. The Directorate is composed of four units: with three cybersecurity units based in Brussels and the digital identity and trust unit based in Luxembourg.

WE PROPOSE

You will work in a friendly team of two policy assistants and two administrative assistants who support the Director in the daily management of a dynamic directorate.

You would be in charge of agenda-keeping, document management, written and oral communications with stakeholders, follow-up of files in circulation and attribution and registration of documents. The job also includes assistance in the organisation of meetings and missions. You will also play a key role in fostering smooth collaboration within the Directorate, with the offices of the DG, DDG and with other Directorates.

The Directorate secretariat also carries out HR management support as well as briefing coordination for the directorate.

The DG values and promotes cross-sectoral work. The jobholder may, therefore, be called to contribute to various tasks and projects in line with the needs of the unit, the Directorate or the DG, as guided by the DG's political priorities.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for an autonomous, motivated and proactive colleague with strong organisational, secretarial and administrative skills, as well as a high degree of initiative and responsibility. Excellent planning skills, attention to detail and the ability to manage several tasks simultaneously while adapting to changing priorities are essential.

The successful candidate should have strong communication and interpersonal skills, a collaborative mindset and a friendly, service-oriented approach. The ability to work effectively under pressure, exercise sound judgement and contribute reliably to the timely delivery of the Directorate's work will be particularly important.

A good command of the main Commission administrative systems, including Ares, MIPS, SysPer, Decide and BASIS, would be a strong asset, as would proficient use of Microsoft Office applications. The candidate should be able to work confidently in an English-speaking environment. Knowledge of additional EU languages would be an advantage.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to Thorwald-eirik.kaljo@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference CNECT/COM/2026/1794 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.

ANNEX

1. Selection

➤ Am I eligible to apply?

You must meet the following eligibility criteria when you validate your application:

Our rules provide that you can only be recruited as a temporary agent at the European Commission if you:

General criteria:

- Are a citizen of a Member State of the EU and enjoy full rights as a citizen
- Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by applicable laws concerning military service
- Are physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post
- Produce the appropriate character references as to suitability for the performance of the duties.

Qualifications:

In order to be recruited for this position, you must have at least

- a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, or
- a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education, and appropriate professional experience of at least three years.

Only qualifications issued or recognised as equivalent by EU Member State authorities (e.g. by the Ministry of Education) will be accepted. Furthermore, before recruitment, you will be required to provide the documents that corroborate the eligibility criteria (diplomas, certificates and other supporting documents).

Languages:

- have a thorough knowledge (minimum level C1) of one of the 24 official languages of the EU²
- AND a satisfactory knowledge (minimum level B2) of a second official language of the EU, to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties.

² The official languages of the European Union are: BG (Bulgarian), CS (Czech), DA (Danish), DE (German), EL (Greek), EN (English), ES (Spanish), ET (Estonian), FI (Finnish), FR (French), GA (Irish), HR (Croatian), HU (Hungarian), IT (Italian), LT (Lithuanian), LV (Latvian), MT (Maltese), NL (Dutch), PL (Polish), PT (Portuguese), RO (Romanian), SK (Slovak), SL (Slovenian), SV (Swedish).

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications, we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in another language.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a security vetting that is conducted with the national administration of the Member State.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels.

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b)/2(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group AST/SC.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

The duration of the 1st contract will be up to 4 years. The contract might then be extended only once for a maximum of 2 years and in the interest of service, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.

Should you need further information on working conditions, please refer to Working conditions and benefits of EU Careers.

For information related to Data Protection, please see the Specific Privacy Statement under “7. Information to data subjects on their rights”, to find your rights and how to exercise them in addition to the privacy statement, which summarises the processing of your data.