

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

The Commission's Security Directorate is part of the Directorate-General for Human Resources and Security and in charge of the institution's internal security policy. The role of the Security Directorate is to ensure that, in all its places of activity in the EU, people, assets and information are adequately protected against security and safety risks. Under the direct supervision of the Security Director, the sector DS.002 deals with and provides advice related to the security of the Commission Representations based in the capitals of the EU Member States and some smaller regional offices. In most sites, the premises are shared with the European Parliament's Liaison Offices (EPLOs), and in these cases they are named Houses of Europe. The functions are characterized by various coordination activities on site and remotely with the European Parliament, the Commission DGs and other stakeholders.

WE PROPOSE

HR.DS.002 is seeking to hire one Administrative Agent whose overall task will be to coordinate under the guidance of the Head of Sector the implementation of security measures, the risk management plans and crisis management arrangements in the Representations / Houses of Europe and to provide assistance to management and staff members concerned.

The position will consist of:

- managing various projects, from drafting the security concept and defining requirements, through studies, tendering processes, implementation of works, up to final acceptance;
- participating in meetings, draft minutes, creating photographic reports with configuration layouts on-site, and providing technical and financial reporting to the hierarchy;
- verifying the conformity of implementation with specifications, plans and schedules; analysing execution plans and technical data sheets; checking progress states, validating prices, and quantities implemented;
- organising and actively participating in inspections and address any issues arising;
- ensuring proper handover and follow up intervention of maintenance services. Keeping updated the security dossiers of the Representations;
- coordinating regularly with the Head of Sector, share information within the team and the other sectors/units in the own DG,

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a structured and thorough colleague who is comfortable in using recent IT technologies (including AI) and office automation tools (Word and Excel) in classified environment, who is available for frequent travelling and has (very) good oral and writing skills in English (C1) and French (B2).

S/he should have a job-related experience of at least 3 years, relevant technical education would be an advantage.

The successful candidate:

- must have a working knowledge of risk analysis and management;
- must have knowledge of main security and crisis protocols, standards and norms in the EU institutions;
- must have sound knowledge of procurement and contract management.

The security agent must either be a holder of a valid security clearance up to the level of "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to HR-DS-VACANCIES@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference HR/COM/2026/1591 in the subject.

➤ What about the selection steps?

The post was published internally within the Commission, inter-institutionally, and brought to the attention of competition laureates.

In accordance with Article 29 of the Staff Regulations, applications from Commission officials, officials from other Institutions, and laureates of competitions have priority³. If these candidates do not best fit the requirements for the position, the Commission can recruit a temporary agent.

For temporary agents under Article 2(a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, the post is published directly on the EPSO website, without mandatory prior internal publication.

A selection panel will choose a limited number of candidates for interview, based on the CV and application form that they submitted. Due to the large volume of applications we may receive, only candidates selected for the next step of the selection phase will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and French.

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in their application.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up, carried out by the Commission. Candidates are required to undergo a security vetting that is conducted with the national administration of the Member State.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be Brussels

In case the successful candidate is not an official or a competition laureate, they will be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b)/2(d) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group SC1-SC2.

³ Officials from the Commission or other Institutions are invited to use the standard channels (Sysper or inter-institutional vacancy portal).

➤ Grade

The recruitment grade, as well as the step in that grade, will be determined in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2025\)4716 on policies for the engagement and use of temporary agents and with Commission Decision C\(2013\)8970 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The recruitment grade will be calculated based on the qualifications and the number of years of professional experience, according to Art. 13 of the Commission Decision C(2025)4716. Higher grades may be granted exceptionally.

All new staff have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.
