

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Administrative Assistant

Directorate-General for Competition (DG COMP) of the European Commission

Selection reference: COMP/COM/2026/1386

Domain: Public Administration

Where: Unit CE.1 – Chief Economist Team Economic Analysis I, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrative assistant

Grade range: AST1-3

Publication deadline: 08.10.2026 - 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit CE.1 (Economic Analysis I) is one of the two units in the Chief Economist Team (CET). The CET assists DG Competition in the development and application of economic analysis and quantitative evidence in the enforcement of competition rules. We are a friendly and dynamic team of around 30 people with a good and open team spirit. The CET provides guidance on economic matters to DG Competition and assists case teams in carrying out the Commission's assessment of competition issues in individual cases and of policy issues. The CET deals with the implementation and supervision of economic and financial analysis undertaken as part of antitrust, merger and state aid cases or of horizontal tasks. We work on some of the most complex and high-profile cases handled by DG Competition. The CET also provides support to the Chief Economist in the provision of independent economic advice to DG Competition and to the Commissioner for Competition. Furthermore, the CET contributes from an economic point of view to the defense of Commission decisions on competition cases before the EU courts.

WE PROPOSE

We offer an interesting and challenging position as Administrative assistant to the Chief Economist and Heads of Units in a friendly and motivating working environment and with a large degree of autonomy in organizing your work.

The administrative assistant's responsibilities will include:

- Assist the Chief Economist (Director) in different organisational and management matters
- Support the Chief Economist and HoUs in the Human resource management of the Chief Economist Directorate
- Act as financial correspondent of the Directorate, supervising and controlling the financial and budget transactions relating to our work program
- Provide support to the team in the performance of administrative and planning functions;

- Coordinate the preparation of briefings requests and speeches and follow up deadlines;
- Back-up for the Secretary of the Chief Economist
- Co-ordinate the preparation of meetings, workshops, seminars and other events.
- Foster smooth collaboration within the Directorate, with the offices of the DG and DDGs and with other Directorates

Responsibilities may be further discussed based on the new colleague's interests and the needs of the team.

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a pro-active, motivated and well-organized colleague with a sense of responsibility and with the ability to work independently. The position also requires close collaboration with other members of the team and with colleagues in the DG. Therefore, strong interpersonal and communication skills, a strong sense of teamwork, initiative and responsibility and a cooperative approach to dealing with colleagues and interact with the economists of the team are absolutely essential.

The internal working language of the CET is mainly English while French may be used for communication with other parts of the Commission; other languages are an asset.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to COMP-TA-APPLICATION@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference COMP/COM/2026/1386 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
