

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging positions with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

¹ Please note that the list of underrepresented Member States may be subject to future amendment based on potential data changes over time.

Policy officer

in DG HOME of the European Commission

Job title: Policy Officer

Domain: EU's INTERNAL and EXTERNAL SECURITY

Where: Unit E1, Funding Coordination, Brussels

Function Group: FG IV

Contract Type: 3b

Express your interest until: 18.09.2026 - 12.00 (noon, Brussels time)

WE ARE

DG Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME) is in charge of the policy domain for asylum and migration, border management and internal security. The mission of unit HOME.E1 (Funding Coordination) is to ensure that the Home Affairs Funds support the important, challenging and continuously evolving policy priorities in this domain and are implemented in respect of the principles of sound financial management. We cooperate closely with other financial and policy units in DG HOME, decentralised agencies and Member States to ensure that our Funds deliver added value. Through our work, we support persons in need, have an impact on a peaceful coexistence between EU citizens and third-country nationals, help protecting EU external borders, and endeavour to make Europe a safer place. We create synergies with external and internal actors to strengthen partnerships and ensure that results are achieved, funds are spent in a proper manner, and processes are simplified as much as possible. We are also responsible for the development of the future legal framework for funding activities in the area of Home Affairs under the new Multiannual Financial Framework (2028-2034).

WE PROPOSE

A stimulating job in an inspiring and friendly team working in a fast-moving environment. You will be contributing to the work on the shared management procedures for the 2021-2027 Home Affairs Funds as well as on the design of the future procedures for funding activities in the area of Home Affairs under the new Multiannual Financial Framework (2028-2034). Furthermore, you will be responsible for coordinating unit's work on the access to documents and will be in the lead on the horizontal conditions, notably the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the rule of law in the context of Home Affairs policy area. You will be working in close cooperation with other colleagues across our directorate as well as with colleagues in the policy directorates of DG HOME and in other DGs.

WE LOOK FOR

You should be a motivated colleague that is happy taking on new challenges, finding creative solutions to complex problems as part of a dynamic team. Previous experience with shared management and its procedures is a strong asset. Knowledge of the legislative framework for HOME Affairs Funds and/or legislation in the related policy areas (asylum and migration, border management, internal security) and/or for DG HOME decentralised agencies is an asset. Knowledge of the Financial Regulation, the Common Provisions Regulation or experience providing legal analysis is also an asset. You should be able to communicate technical issues to non-experts in a clear and concise manner both orally and in writing. The unit's working languages are English and to a more limited extent also French. You should be able to work independently, take initiatives when appropriate, and have a keen understanding of the sensitive political issues at stake. You should be flexible, service-minded, result-oriented and a real team player with an ability to build and maintain constructive working relationships with colleagues in DG HOME and other DGs as well as with counterparts in Member States and with other external stakeholders.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

➤ What about the selection steps?

The selecting unit chooses from the EPSO database⁴ candidates with the appropriate profile and invites them to an interview. For the interview a selection panel is set-up to assess the best candidates. Due to the large volume of applications that we may receive only candidates selected for the interview will be notified.

For operational reasons and in order to complete the selection procedure as quickly as possible in the interest of the candidates and of the institution, the selection procedure will be carried out in English and possibly in a second official language.

⁴ Therefore, candidates who did not pass already a CAST on the level Function Group IV, should register their profile at this address: <https://eu-careers.europa.eu/en/Cast-Permanent>

2. Recruitment

The candidate selected for recruitment will be requested to provide documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the database and, where relevant, the call for interest.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo a mandatory pre-recruitment medical check-up carried out by the Commission.

➤ Type of contract and working conditions

The place of employment will be in Brussels

The successful candidate will be engaged as a contract agent under Article 3(b) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants, in function group FG IV. General information on Contract Agents can be found at this link.

The grade or proposed grade range, as well as the step in that grade, will be defined on the basis of the candidates' previous professional experience, in accordance with Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 laying down the criteria applicable to classification in step on engagement.

The duration of the first contract will be 1 year. Subject to the interest of the service, the contract may be renewed one or more times up to a maximum duration of 6 years.

The duration of the renewal(s) will be defined according to the General Implementing Rules in force at that moment (currently, Commission Decision C\(2017\)6760 on policies for the engagement and use of contract agents).

Contract agents recruited in Function Group IV have to successfully complete a 9-month probationary period.

The pay of staff members consists of a basic salary supplemented with specific allowances, including, where applicable, expatriation and family allowances. The provisions guiding the calculation of these allowances can be consulted in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants. As a member of staff of the European institutions, your pay is subject to a tax raised by those institutions.

The European Commission applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations.

Should you need further information on working conditions, please refer to Working conditions and benefits of EU Careers.
