

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Secretary

Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers (DG JUST) of the European Commission

Selection reference: JUST/COM/2026/1780

Domain: Support staff

Where: Unit JUST.C3 – „Data Protection“, Brussels

Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b

Grade range: AST/SC1-2

Publication deadline: 15.09.2026 – 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

Unit JUST.C3 is responsible for the protection of personal data as a fundamental right in the EU. The EU data protection rules – the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Law Enforcement Directive – are key EU achievements. Ensuring that the new legislation delivers for people living in the EU is therefore a priority objective for the Commission and our unit in particular. To this end, we monitor the compliance of national legislation, integrate data protection into all relevant EU policy initiatives, and actively engage with all actors, in particular data protection authorities, businesses and civil society. With a wide range of EU policies increasingly involving the processing of personal data, we work closely with a wide range of Commission services in areas such as artificial intelligence and the related data strategy, health, financial services, mobility and law enforcement, in order to ensure that the fundamental right to the protection of personal data is duly respected.

WE PROPOSE

We offer a position for a motivated and eager to learn unit secretary in a dynamic work environment. The new colleague will be an integral part of the team and will work in close cooperation with the head of unit, all members of the unit and other colleagues in the Directorate-General for Justice and Consumers. S/he will have frequent contacts with other Commission services and stakeholders.

The position will consist of a wide variety of tasks contributing to the smooth running of the unit by providing general secretarial, organisational and administrative support and ensuring compliance with Commission's administrative rules. The new colleague will in particular be responsible for handling unit mail, assisting in handling briefings, support in interaction with external stakeholders, including other EU bodies, preparing business trips, organising meetings (on-line or physical), and assisting in coordinating and handling citizen's complaints, access to documents request, petitions and other similar requests. S/he will ensure the administrative support to colleagues in handling consultations on legal acts to be adopted by the Commission (interservice-consultations).

WE LOOK FOR

We are looking for a friendly, dynamic and motivated team member. The successful candidate should have proven secretarial, organisational and coordination skills and be able to work autonomously. S/he should have a sense of initiative.

The ideal profile for the job is a candidate with:

- Ability to interact constructively with colleagues and stakeholders.
- Very good communication and drafting skills in English. Further language skills, in particular French or German, would be an asset.
- A good knowledge of Commission procedures and standard Commission tools is an asset. But more importantly, s/he should be willing to develop him/herself further, by learning on the job and by following targeted training courses as necessary.

HOW TO EXPRESS YOUR INTEREST?

You should send your documents in a single pdf in the following order:

1. your CV
2. completed application form.

Please send these documents by the publication deadline to JUST-C3@ec.europa.eu indicating the selection reference JUST/COM/2026/1780 in the subject.

No applications will be accepted after the publication deadline.
