

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

DG Health and Food Safety (DG SANTE) aims to promote actions that improve access to healthcare, safe food to eat and protection against epidemics and diseases. Its goal is to build and maintain Europe's high standards on animal and plant health, as well as the most affordable, accessible and high-quality health systems to deliver on these expectations.

Within the Directorate "Policy and administrative support", Unit SANTE.R1, 'Better Regulation' provides support to DG SANTE departments in applying the principles of better regulation throughout the entire policy-making cycle. The Unit is also responsible for data protection and document management for the Directorate-General.

We are a team of around 25 colleagues (with a balanced mix between AD/AST staff) and are based across three locations: Brussels, Luxembourg and Grange (Ireland). We maintain daily contact with all DG SANTE Units and with central services in the Secretariat-General, the Directorate-General for Informatics and the Historical archives service. The Unit comprises two teams: the Document management team supports the implementation of sound records management practices within the DG. The Policy-making support team assists the DG and policy Directorates in their day-to-day application of Better Regulation principles and requirements.

WE PROPOSE

The successful candidate will be appointed as a Document Management Agent in SANTE's Document Management Officer's (DMO) team within Unit R1. This role is essential to for delivering high-quality archival services and ensuring a smooth operation of records management support across DG SANTE.

Key responsibilities include:

- representing the DMO team at SANTE's Brussels site: in close coordination with the team, the successful applicant will liaise with SANTE's units and directorates and provide:
 - o guidance, advice, and support on records management and archives-related queries

- and issues;
 - direct assistance with specific documents management tasks
- jointly managing the team's functional mailbox
- providing helpdesk support to all SANTE staff for the use of Commission's document management system(s).

WE LOOK FOR

We are seeking a candidate with a strong background in archiving and document management, demonstrating excellent organisational and communication skills, along with experience in administrative support functions.

The ideal candidate will have

- A solid understanding of the European Commission's records and information management policies
- Proven experience in coordinating administrative and operational tasks
- Familiarity with the Commission's working environment.
- A diploma in archival studies or records management or information science (with a specialisation in archiving), or a closely related field covering at least one archiving subject (e.g. digital preservation, metadata standards, archival appraisal, or records lifecycle management) would be an asset.

Essential requirements:

- At least 3 years of job-related experience in archiving and document management;
- Hands on experience with the European Commission's archives and records management policy, systems and tools (e.g. Ares, NomCom) as well as Microsoft Office applications (Teams, Outlook, Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Strong teamwork skills: the successful candidate will join a small, geographically dispersed team across DG SANTE's three sites;
- Ability to work proactively and independently, with an eye for detail and commitment to delivering high-quality results;
- A customer service mindset with the ability to address user needs efficiently;
- Excellent planning and coordination skills, including the ability to prioritise and meet deadlines;
- Strict confidentiality in handling sensitive information;
- Fluency in English (C1) and French (B2). Knowledge of additional languages is welcome.

This role does not require atypical working hours, specialised job skills, frequent or long-duration missions, or exposure to workplace health and safety risks.

The position is based in Brussels.
