

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

Financial Regulation and/or other financial rules applicable to the EU budget"

WE ARE

Unit BUDG.E.1 'Financial Rules: Governance, Shared and Indirect Management' is one of the legal units in DG BUDG and forms part of the Commission's Central Financial Service (CFS).

Our mission involves in particular:

- drafting, negotiating and interpreting the general financial rules laid down in the EU Financial Regulation and other legislative acts related to the implementation of the EU budget;
- providing legal advice and support including for the CFS help desk in the field of:
- budgetary principles and other governance rules underpinning the establishment, implementation, control and discharge of the Union budget;
- principles of implementation of the budget, e.g. conflict of interests, transparency, sound financial management, performance, etc;
- EU funds implemented under shared management and other EU instruments financing pre-allocated envelopes for the EU Member States;
- EU funds implemented through indirect management, financial instruments and budgetary guarantees;
- EU external actions instruments;
- financial rules for decentralised agencies, executive agencies, and joint undertakings

We work on a daily basis with Commission services, other EU institutions, EU agencies and bodies, and other stakeholders. The Unit is actively involved in the design of the post 2027 Multiannual Financial Frameworks (EU's long-term budget).

WE PROPOSE

Great opportunities to learn and develop: You will be joining at a key moment for negotiating the relevant legal acts proposed for the post-2027 Multiannual Financial Framework, including the financial rules for this period. Work will consist of legal analysis and drafting of opinions, notes, replies to interservice consultations and legal texts as well as the preparation of documents supporting interinstitutional negotiations. Daily contacts with your clients in the Commission and beyond mean that communication and day-to-day negotiation will be another important part of your work. The successful candidate will assist the work of the unit, adopting a view that is not limited to the legal arguments but includes budgetary considerations and the wider political context. Working in our unit is exciting and a friendly and collegial atmosphere makes for a rewarding experience.

WE LOOK FOR

A colleague to take part in the preparation and negotiation of new financial rules as well as relevant parts of the next Multiannual Financial Framework package, assist in the interpretation and implementation of existing legal and financing rules, coordinate specific legal files and assist in preparing inter-institutional and other negotiations in the competence of the Unit.

A candidate should fulfil the following specific requirements:

- has experience in the field of the Financial Regulation and/or other financial rules applicable to the EU budget (experience with work related to financial instruments, budgetary guarantees, budgetary principles and governance arrangements for the implementation of the budget is a clear asset);
- has preferably a legal background (concrete experience in drafting and negotiating legislation and other legal acts is an asset)
- has the capacity to identify political concerns and to propose appropriate solutions in line with the regulatory framework;
- has very good problem-solving skills and is able to translate complex ideas into clear and concise language;
- has a strong sense of initiative, ability to work with little guidance and to adapt to new tasks;
- has the ability to communicate convincingly and to defend his/her position in meetings;
- has a sense of responsibility, including reporting on issues early enough for possible intervention;
- has experience in relation with other Institutions, agencies and other bodies;
- is proficient in English, both orally and in writing. Good command of French is an asset.
