Staff category and Function Group: Temporary agent 2b – Administrator

Grade range: AD5-7

Publication deadline: 18/09/2026 – 12.00 (Brussels time)

WE ARE

The sanctions unit consists of a team of dedicated, enthusiastic and highly co-operative colleagues. The core business of the unit is to design and negotiate, in a fast and flexible manner, one of the most visible and active foreign policy tools: sanctions. The unit builds bridges between, on the one hand, the political decisions taken by the European Council and the Council of the EU, and, on the other hand, the EU internal market. The unit plays a crucial role in translating the European Commission's political priorities into action, in line with the EU's Global Strategy for Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP). In addition, the unit is responsible for the legal application of the Blocking Statute, the EU's main tool against extra-territorial sanctions of third countries. The unit works in close cooperation with other Commission services, as well as with the European External Action Service (EEAS) and the Council. Externally, the unit is in contact with Member States, economic operators, third countries and international actors, such as the United Nations or multilateral development banks. The environment is thriving and stimulating, and we frequently experience high workloads.

WE PROPOSE

A dynamic, challenging and rewarding work environment.

A varied job carried out with a wide range of partners inside and outside of the EU.

An opportunity to learn and grow in accordance with the needs of the job.

The new colleague will take an active role in shaping and implementing the Commission's priorities in the area of sanctions policy.

S/he will prepare proposals for Council and/or Commission Regulations on sanctions and negotiate their adoption in Council; support uniform sanctions implementation through dialogue with Member States and stakeholders, drafting and issuance of Commission Guidance Notes and Opinions; monitor sanctions enforcement by the Member States, and monitor and assess the effects of sanctions.

S/he will represent the unit in different internal/external fora in the EU, third countries and with the UN, including during missions, conferences and outreach events.

The new colleague will also work on horizontal issues, such as access to documents, data protection issues, expert group management, advice to candidate countries on sanctions issues, etc. S/he will also work on topics related to the circumvention of EU restrictive measures, including via third countries. Due to the current international context, it is likely that a substantial part of the recruited colleague's workload will be related to the EU sanctions concerning the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

- a solid legal background;

- proven experience in organization of Commission expert groups and/or participation in Council Working Groups;
- very good interpersonal skills and capacity to interact with colleagues within the unit and from outside, and to maintain professional, meaningful contacts with external stakeholders;
- ability to work autonomously and proactively, while forming part of a very close-knit, dynamic and hard-working team;
- capacity to ensure high quality, speed, accuracy and timeliness in performing a diversity of tasks in a complex, multicultural environment often under time pressure;
- sense of initiative and well-developed political judgement;
- readiness to perform missions.

Excellent drafting and communication skills in English are essential; good German is an advantage, as is knowledge of other languages.
