

MAKE A DIFFERENCE – JOIN THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Do you want to help shape the future of the European Union? Make the planet greener, promote a fairer society, or support businesses and innovation across the EU? Then come and work for the European Commission where you can really make a difference!

Commission staff are a diverse group of people, who are motivated to help make Europe – and the world – a better place. They come from the 27 Member States of the European Union. Different nationalities, backgrounds, languages and cultures make the Commission a vibrant and inclusive place to work.

WE OFFER GREAT JOBS AND GREAT WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Interesting and challenging jobs with plenty of opportunities for training and acquiring new skills and competencies throughout your whole career
- Opportunities to move between different policy areas throughout your career
- A package of flexible working conditions including the possibility of teleworking – we care about your work-life balance
- A competitive financial package, including comprehensive healthcare, accident and pension schemes
- A multilingual, multicultural workplace where personal and career development are strongly promoted
- Multilingual schools for your children

We recruit from a wide range of backgrounds and actively promote diversity and inclusion:

We do not only recruit political scientists and lawyers but are also looking for all kinds of profiles, including scientists, linguists, IT experts, data analysts and economists, as well as drivers and engineers.

We are committed to equal opportunities and to fostering a rich, diverse and inclusive working environment. We aim for our workforce to be representative of European society and strongly welcome applications from all qualified candidates. We actively seek to create a workplace where each staff member feels valued and respected, can give their best and can develop to their full potential.

To promote diversity and establish a geographically balanced pool of candidates, we strongly encourage applicants from Member States which are currently underrepresented in the European Commission workforce to apply. These Member States are currently Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, the Netherlands, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Sweden¹. Recruitment will however remain strictly based on the merits of all applicants and no positions will be reserved for nationals of any specific Member State.

STAFF RECRUITED ON CONTRACTS

In addition to permanent officials, the European Commission offers non-permanent positions. There are two categories of non-permanent staff:

- temporary agents are recruited to fill vacant positions for a set amount of time or to perform highly specialised tasks.
- contract agents may provide additional capacity in specialised fields where an insufficient number of officials is available or carry out a number of administrative or manual tasks. They are generally recruited for fixed-term contracts (maximum 6 years in any EU Institution), but in some cases they can be offered contracts for an indefinite duration (in offices, agencies, delegations or representations).

WE ARE

We are the "Information Security and Inspections" unit in the Security Directorate of the European Commission. We deal with Information Security Policy, IT security inspections, classified information protection, security clearances and screening of external contractors. We manage several communication and information systems handling sensitive non classified (CommisSign) and EU classified information (RUE-X, RTOP, SUE).

We assist the Crypto Distribution Authority of the European Commission in its duties and provide crypto custodian services for the European Commission departments and services. We operate multiple small data centres, including PKI and network infrastructure, virtualisation infrastructure and servers. We provide PKI services for 40 000 users.

We deliver trainings to 1000's of staff each year.

We are an innovative team and are constantly updating and renewing our services with new technology and improved processes, we are actively experimenting with AI to improve the quality of our service, and implementing modern IT service management solutions.

We work in small project teams, with a lot of autonomy, and a constant attention to security and novel threats and attacks. We are constantly benchmarking and testing our solutions against security standards.

WE PROPOSE

An IT security assistant position with a strong focus on applying security - relevant procedures and operational activities.

The IT security assistant will support the operations of the European Commission's Crypto Distribution Authority and will assume the role of the deputy European Commission Crypto Custodian.

They will be responsible the management and distribution of cryptographic material used by classified communication and information systems operated by the European Commission or its partners.

In carrying out their duties, they will liaise with all relevant stakeholders within the European Commission, other EU institutions, agencies and bodies as well as relevant stakeholders in Member States.

The successful candidate will also support the operations of classified services used in the Commission.

He/she will also be involved in a variety of tasks, ranging from delivering training, following up on customer requests, gathering user feedback, coordinating meetings and identifying opportunities to simplify procedures and optimize security.

WE LOOK FOR

A structured and thorough security assistant with a hands-on profile, high degree of professional responsibility and able to organise their tasks efficiently.

The successful candidate will be expected to interact directly with our many stakeholders including European Commission staff at the very highest level.

The successful candidate should not be afraid of being involved in project management and/or operational tasks. Over time, we expect the candidate to develop a vision regarding the current threat landscape as it pertains to information security in the Commission, and to contribute to both technological and policy proposals to address relevant threats.

The candidate must hold a valid security clearance up to the level "SECRET UE/EU SECRET" or be willing to undergo the national security vetting procedure.
